

Token Creek Chamber Music Festival 2016
Twenty-Seventh Season
WATER MUSIC
words & music celebrating the natural world

August 27 – September 4, 2016

PROGRAM I. By the Brook

Saturday August 27 at 8:00pm & Sunday August 28 at 4:00pm

A program of water-inspired works celebrating the newly completed stream restoration on the Token Creek farm property. An optional pre-concert stroll along the new creek, with conversation with restoration ecology experts, departs from the barn 75 minutes before concert begins.

SCHUBERT Auf dem Strom
SCHUBERT Songs on texts of Goethe (selections)
BACH Cantata 165: O heiliges Geist- und Wasserbad
BACH Art of the Fugue (selections)
HARBISON Mottetti di Montale, Libro 4
BACH Violin Concerto in E Major, BWV 1042

Rachel Warrick, soprano
Margaret Lattimore, mezzo soprano
Sarah Leuwerke, alto
Daniel O'Dea, tenor
Nathan Krueger, bass

John Harbison, piano
Molly Morkoski, piano

Linda Kimball, horn
Laura Burns, violin
Rose Mary Harbison, violin
Jennifer Paulson, viola
Karl Lavine, cello
Ross Gilliland, bass

PROGRAM II. Music for Viols, Then & Now
Tuesday August 30 at 7:30pm

Works of BYRD, DOWLAND, PURCELL, JENKINS
HARBISON – The Cross of Snow (Wisconsin premiere)

A guest recital by Second City Musick consort of viols (Chicago)
Anna Steinhoff, Craig Trompeter, Russell Wagner
With guests Brady Lanier and countertenor Nathan Medley

“Commissioned by William John Wartmann in memory of his late wife, this stunning work blends the ethereal lushness of violas da gamba with the haunting clarity of the countertenor voice to explore the emotions of grief, loss and love.”

PROGRAM III. Water Colors
Friday September 2 at 7:30pm & Sunday September 4 at 4:00pm

Two masterworks of the consummate musical naturalist, Franz Schubert.

SCHUBERT Die Schöne Müllerin, D.795
SCHUBERT Quintet for Piano and Strings, D.667 (“The Trout”)

William Hite, tenor
Michael Beattie, piano
Molly Morkoski, piano
Rose Mary Harbison, violin
Jennifer Paulson, viola
Karl Lavine, cello
Ross Gilliland, bass